Presents

Shanna in a Dress is your quirky best friend who refuses to wear pants. She says what everyone has felt but no one else will say and you'll get an uncensored journey of clever humor and heartbreak, extreme candor, and a hefty side of entertainment at her shows. This witty wordsmith is known for taking you on an emotional roller coaster, sometimes within the same song. Think John Prine mixed with Ingrid Michaelson with a twist of Phoebe Buffay from Friends all wrapped up in a sweet voice accented by guitar, piano, and ukulele. She's as real as it gets, as anyone who follows her on Facebook or Instagram knows.

In 2020 alone, Shanna was a winner in the Kerrville New Folk competition, winner of the Great River Folk Fest Song Competition, a finalist at Songwriter Serenade, and a Grassy Hill Emerging Artist at the Falcon Ridge Folk Festival. During the summer of 2021, Shanna bicycled from Seattle to Boston while music-touring on her epic "Tour de Dress," playing over 60 shows from coast to coast and partnering up with the global non-profit Pangaea World Foundation. In May 2022, her debut record "Robot" was released after a wildly successful crowdfunded campaign years earlier. She has most recently been seen gracing the stages of Kerrville Folk Festival, Falcon Ridge Folk Festival, Black Bear Americana Fest, Great River Folk Fest, the Bluebird Cafe in Nashville and at the 2023 Rocky Mountain Folks Fest. ~ https://www.shannainadress.com/home

Biography - "The younger of two children, Lead Belly was born Huddie William Ledbetter...on a plantation near Mooringsport, Louisiana. [he] received his first instrument in Texas, an accordion, from his uncle Terrell. By 1903, [he] was already a "musicianer"... of some note. Between 1915 and 1939, [he] served several prison and jail terms in Louisiana for a variety of criminal charges. Notably, in 1918 under the name of Walter Boyd, he was convicted of murder in Texas and sentenced to 30 years in prison. After writing a song pleading for clemency Ledbetter was pardoned by Governor Pat Morris Neff in 1925. ...he was "discovered" in Angola Penitentiary during a 1933 visit by folklorists John Lomax and his son Alan Lomax." He later unfortunately fell out with John Lomax and they never recovered their relationship. "In 1939, Lead Belly was convicted and sentenced again to prison. Alan Lomax, then 24, took him under his wing and helped raise money for his legal expenses, dropping out of graduate school to do so." HOW THE JOHN B. SAILS

The Bahamian folk song originally published as The John B. Sails is known to most of us as Sloop John B. It has been recorded by numerous artists. The Kingston Trio and The Beach Boys have recordings that are well known to many of us. The accompaniment is performed in a Calypso beat (- - - _ _ -), a syncopated rhythm. Here is a link to a recording that may be close to the original style of its performance. Or on our website.

We come on the Sloop John B, my grandfather and me.

Round Nassau town ve did roam,

G7

Drinkin all night, ve got in a fight,

well I feel so break up, ve vant to go home.

Chorus:

So hoist up the John B sail, see how the mainsail set,

Call for the captain a shore, let me go home.

G7

Let me go home, let me go home,

I feel so break- up, I vant to go home.

The first mate he got drunk, Break up the people trunk, Constable come aboard, take him away-Mr. Johnstone, leave me alone, I feel so break-up, I vant to go home. Chorus

The poor cook got the fits, Throw away all o' my grits, Captain's pig done eat up all o' my corn. Lemme go home, I vant to go home, I feel so break-up, I vant to go home. Chorus

Steamboat go by steam, Sailboat go by sail, My girl's hat 'ain't got no tail. Lemme go home, I vant to go home, Chorus I feel so break-up, I vant to go home.

Send all the things from ashore, Let all the breezes blow, I'm so sorry that I can longer stay, Good-by to you— Tra-la-la-lu, This is the vorst trip since I vas born. Chorus

by Andy Longo

The Devil's Tritone was avoided in music performed in church because it was considered to be aesthetically displeasing, and thus unworthy to be used in praising the Lord. However, it has been used effectively in classical music, rock music and in the musical theme songs of "South Park" and "The Simpsons". Given the tonic note, for example C, the tritone is a semitone between the perfect 4th and 5th of the key, F#. To many this may be perceived as dissonant. To Leonard Bernstein it was not considered as such. In the score he wrote for "West Side Story", you can probably sing along very well with this interval C - F# - G as you sing "Ma - ri - a" I just met a girl named "Ma - ri - A".

EMMIT'S PLACE NEEDS YOU

As many of you might have heard, Susan, the operator of Emmit's Place and an avid supporter of live music, was recently diagnosed with cancer. She is focused on the health battle ahead and will be unable to operate the club over the next several months.

While she has insurance to cover her medical care, Emmit's Place will not be able to support paying the 70+ hours of labor each week that Susan typically worked unpaid. We are requesting donations to help cover these labor costs so we can keep the doors open at Emmit's Place in her absence. Large or small, any donations are greatly appreciated.

To make a donation and read updates from Susan about progress in her health battle, please visit the GoFundMe page at the link below.

Selia Qynn, acoustic folk-jazz musician at Prima Pasta and owner of Habitat House, fell off a ladder and broke both feet. Please help defray the cost of her lost income and help pay for the upkeep of the Habitat garden and animals while she is unable to. Any amount is appreciated.
