

FEBRUARY FEATURED SONG

by Paul Cooper

WE TURN TO THE SUN

Our February Second Saturday artist, Dana Cooper, is a highly accomplished singer-songwriter and guitarist with strong connections to Houston. He is a recipient of Folk Alliance International's Spirit of Folk award, and has performed on Austin City Limits, Mountain Stage, and at the Kerrville Folk Festival. He has over 15 CDs to his credit, and dozens of wonderful songs. Dana has graciously given us permission to publish this charming love song, which you can hear on his latest CD, I Can Face the Truth, or on the HFMS Audio Archive page at

FLOWER AND THE VINE

Dana Cooper/Kim Richey

C F C
Leaves fall and scatter It really doesn't matter
C F
Seasons they come and they go
C F C
The bee in the bramble The melody rambles
C G C
Along to a song that we know

F G
Always hello never goodbye
Am G F
Forever our lives are entwined
C G C F
We turn to the sun together as one
G C
Close as the flower and the vine

Ink on the page Eventually fades
We each write the book of our days
Miles stretch between us Years find and leave us
In my eyes you're always the same

Always hello never goodbye
Forever our lives are entwined
We turn to the sun together as one
F G F
Close as the flower and the vine
F G F
Close as the flower and the vine

F G Am
The light in the stars The fire in my heart
C F C
Birds in the sky The tear in your eye
G F G
The moon in the night Declares you and I will never part
C G
We'll never part

C G C F
We turn to the sun together as one
F G F
Close as the flower and the vine
F G F G C F G C
Close as the flower and the vine
