The song begins about four minutes into the video, so you can skip over to the song if you like. With his high singing voice, Phil performs the song in G, but if you want to play along with the video, you can Capo V and play the chords shown below.

https://youtu.be/N9tzh NdN o?si=DSM3XCuMU7SkjxbR

THE WARLIKE LADS OF RUSSIA

G	D A	D
rom Poland in	to Moscow I	he went
	Bm	G	Α
all his men, the	eir minds we	ere fully bent
G D	Α	D
country, they	were full em	nployed
D	G	6 A	D
But the Russians fought against them, and they soon had them destroyed.
G	D A	D
Russia they	fought all in	one mind	٠.
	A D
and leave his	troops behin	nd.
	all his men, the G D country, they D t against them G Russia they	Bm all his men, their minds we G D A country, they were full em D G t against them, and they s G D A Russia they fought all in A D	all his men, their minds were fully bent G D A D country, they were full employed D G A t against them, and they soon had the G D A D Russia they fought all in one mind

Now, when from Moscow the city, oh, the Russians did retreat Neither Bonaparte nor all his men not anything could get And from Moscow the city, oh, the Russians took their flight They set the town on fire, and they burned it down that night.

CHORUS

Now into Moscow the city, oh, the Russians did attack 'Gainst Bonaparte and all his men, they got them runnin' -- drove them back But the action bein' so hot from right and left and front and rear -- Oh damn you, says old Bonaparte, I'll stay no longer here.

CHORUS:

Now, it's to conclude this wondrous tale, and finish up this song, Old Boney's made the Russians swear they wish they'd hold of him. And the cruelest death they'd put him to that ever, ever man did 'fall Oh, curse you, says old Bonaparte, I'm clear of you all.

CHORUS -- REPEAT CHORUS