OTHER UPCOMING HFMS June EVENTS

HFMS MEETING/SONG CIRCLE—August 5, 7:30PM

Our monthly song circle meeting is Monday, August 5 from 7:30 to 9:50PM at the Jewish Community Center. The JCC is located at 5601 South Braeswood Boulevard, Houston, TX 77096-3999. Ask the front desk for the room number of the Houston Folklore and Music Society meeting.

Meetings consist of a "song circle", allowing each attendee an opportunity to share a song, story, announcement, or other item which he or she may wish to share with the group. Non-performers are just as welcome as performers. After all, musicians, singers, and storytellers all need an audience.

AUGUST PICKIN' PARTY — August 25

The next Pickin' Party is from 2:00-6:00 PM, Sunday, August 25 at Anderson Fair. Tim Leatherwood has, once again opened the doors of Anderson Fair to our organization, and will provide non-alcoholic drinks, plates, utensils, etc. Alcoholic beverages will be available for purchase. Bring a dish (meat, side or desert) for the pot luck meal, which is from 2:00 to 3:00 PM. The song circle will be from 3:00 to 6:00 PM. Bring food to share, as well as an instrument, voice and/or ear.

Anderson Fair is located at 2007 Grant Street (at Welch Street behind Texas Arts Supply on Montrose) in Houston.

See: <http://www.houstonfolkmusic.org/#pknpty>.

It's always fun to host a Pickin' Party at your home, church hall, community center, etc. You provide the space drinks, plates and utensils. You can invite other members to help you co-host, to share the fun (and the effort). Please contact Carolyn Davis at carolynadavis@aol.com to volunteer to host in the near future.

LAST MONTH'S HAPPENINGS

The July Song Circle / Meeting at the Jewish Community Center was enjoyed by an enthusiastic group of pickers, singers and listeners. The sound of guitars, mandolins, voices and a fiddle filled the room.

Our first Monday song circle is always relaxed musical fun.

The July Pickin' Party was hosted, once again, by Bob Felder at J.P. Hops House. The large circle of folks shared food, songs, stories and laughs all afternoon. A few of us stayed afterwards for the JP Hops House Open Mic.

Thank you, Bob and J.P. Hops House, for hosting another great Pickin' Party.!

ONE-CHORD WOODY

This one presents a real dilemma between authenticity and art. As you can see here <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=BH2DJvgNIMA>, Woody performed it playing a D major chord throughout the song. And the purity and earnestness of the song certainly comes out when it is done that way. But to my musical taste, the melody cries out for a minor chord at the beginning, and the dramatic change to the relative major in the second line, as in this fine rendition from 1965 by Tracy Newman <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FKTGIlvIw7Y>. You can take your pick. That's why they call it folk music. I have notated the chords the way Tracy plays it. You can play it as she does in the A minor chord shape and capo anywhere from open up to V or so to fit your vocal range. Both audio tracks are also available on the HFMS Audio Archive at http://www.houstonfolkmusic.org/HFS_Audio_Archive.html.

PASTURES OF PLENTY*Woody GuthrieAm

It's a mighty hard road that my poor hands has hoed

CE7

My poor feet have travelled a hot dusty road.

Am

Out of your dust bowl and westward we roll.

AmF*Am

And your deserts was hot and your mountains was cold.

I've worked in your orchards of peaches and prunes.

And I've slept on your ground in the light of the moon.

On the edge of your city you'll see us and then.

We come with the dust and we go with the wind.

California, Arizona we make all your crops.

Then it's north up to Oregon to gather your hops.

Take the beets from the ground, take the grapes from the vine.

To set on your table that light sparkling wine.

Green pastures of plenty from dry desert ground.
From the Grand Coulee Dam where the waters run down.
Every state in the union us migrants have been.
We'll work in the fight and we'll fight till we win.

It's always we've rambled, that river and I.
All along your green valley I'll work till I die.
My land I'll defend with my life it it be.
"Cause my pastures of plenty must always be free,
