SECOND SATURDAY CONCERT

January 12, 2019 7:30 p.m.

Albert and Gage

Christine Albert and her husband and musical partner, Chris Gage, are a perfect example of why Austin, Texas, has such a thriving music community, not just a “scene.” In addition to various musical collaborations, they've lent their talents to countless benefits (for organizations like Meals On Wheels, United Way, and the Austin Children's Museum, and often to help fellow musicians out of a bind), and Christine's speaking engagements have included everything from the Family Violence Task Force to the Rotary Club.

Christine Albert and Chris Gage have a personal and musical chemistry that can't be denied or ignored. Their energy on stage is infectious. Together they travel through their musical roots moving from country, rock, swing and folk to blues and French chansons. Their rare blend of voices creates a unique sound, whether they are performing originals, songs written by close friends or well chosen covers. Chris Gage is a master of the guitar, piano and accordion, effortlessly switching instruments throughout their set to follow the mood of the music.

On any given evening, a concert by Albert and Gage might take you from the dusty backwoods of Texas to a bistro along the Seine, from a Louisiana jive joint to a high plains gospel sing. The pair moves easily and without a break from their own original music to Ray Charles, Gram Parsons, Edith Piaf, George Jones, Dan Hicks, Bob Dylan, Johnny Cash, Daniel Lanois, and back again. "It is spontaneous," Gage said. "I can start a certain song on the piano and she'll know the next two or three songs, or I can see where she's putting the capo on her guitar and I'll know what song she's thinking about."

Second Saturday Concert is presented by the Houston Folklore and Music Society, a nonprofit organization dedicated to the preservation of folklore and acoustic music. Refreshments are available at the food table. Tickets are sold at the door - adults $18, senior citizens (65) $14, and children under 12 free with adults. Concerts are held the second Saturdays of each month in the West University Community Center at 6104 Auden (intersection of Auden. and Rice Blvd.) Phone Paul Cooper at 713-204-1207 (cell) for more concert information. #### ***HFMS MEETING/SONG CIRCLE—December 3, 7:30PM

Our monthly song circle meeting is Monday, Dec 3, from 7:30 to 10:00PM at the Jewish Community Center. The JCC is located at 5601 South Braeswood Boulevard, Houston, TX 77096-3999. Ask the front desk for the room number of the Houston Folklore and Music Society meeting.

Meetings consist of a "song circle", allowing each attendee an opportunity to share a song, story, announcement, or other item which he or she may wish to share with the group. Non-performers are just as welcome as performers. After all, musicians, singers, and storytellers all need an audience.

***DECEMBER PICKIN' PARTY—December 16, 2:00PM to 6:00PM

The December Pickin' Party will be hosted by Bob and Sue Lahmeyer, in their lovely rural home on Sunday afternoon, December 16. The pot luck lunch will begin at 2:00PM. Bring a side dish or desert. Bob and Sue will provide a pork roast, as well as drinks, plates, utensils, etc. Music begins about 3:00PM. see <http://www.houstonfolkmusic.org/#pknpty>.

Location: 16480 FM-1484. Mapping software may list it either under 'Cut And Shoot' or under 'Conroe'. The post office lists it as 16480 FM-1484, Conroe, TX 77303. The trip is 50 miles north of Downtown Houston. Phone: 281-413-5871. It's worth the drive!

Directions:

Take I-45 N toward Conroe.

Just south of Conroe, take exit number 84B to East Loop TX-336.

Continue 5.4 miles on East Loop TX-336 and then turn right onto TX-105.

Continue 4.5 miles on TX-105 through beautiful downtown Cut And Shoot.

Just past Caney Creek, turn left onto FM-1484.

Continue 3.5 miles on FM-1484. Bob and Sue's house (16480 FM-1484) is on the left. The address is on a post by the driveway.

see <http://www.houstonfolkmusic.org/#pknpty>.

Kick off the new year by hosting a Pickin' Party at your home, church hall, community center, etc. You provide the space drinks, plates and utensils. You can invite other members to help you co-host, to share the fun (and the effort). Please contact Carolyn Davis at carolynadavis@aol.com to volunteer to host in the near future.

LAST MONTH'S HAPPENINGS***

*** December's Song Circle convened on Monday, December 5 to share songs, stories and friendship. Guitars, mandolins, banjo, octave mandolin and voices accompanied the smiles and laughs.

*** Mustards Retreat performed our Second Saturday Concert on November 10.

The seasoned trio, consisting of David Tamulevich, Michael Hough and Libby Glover, delighted the entranced audience in the true “folk singer” style and spirit. Our appreciative audience was delighted with original songs, including David’s beloved anthem, Ours is a Simple Faith, previously introduced to our audience by Jackie and Rich of Small Potatoes, as well as expertly covered Dylan songs, and other treasures.

A special note of thanks to our sound engineers, Sue and Bob Lahmeyer, who expertly set up and run the sound for each HFMS concert!.

Thanks, Sue and Bob, for your priceless contributions.

*****

*** November's Pickin' Party was hosted, once again, by Micheal and Cassie Crouch in their Sugar Land home. Good food, good friends and heart warming songs and stories filled the room and the four hours of delightful sharing.

HEAVEN CANNOT HOLD HIM

Paul Cooper

This is my favorite Christmas carol, and it goes very nicely with a guitar accompaniment. The words are from a poem by Christina Rossetti published in 1872, and it was set to music in 1906 by the great Scandinavian composer Gustav Holst. You can hear a very creditable version of this carol (in the same key, but slightly different chords) by James Taylor at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6qmtO6cebcU>. or on the Audio Archive page of the HFMS website at http://www.houstonfolkmusic.org/HFS\_Audio\_Archive.html

D                    Bm   Em                    A
In the bleak midwinter, frosty wind made moan.

D                    Bm G       A       D
Earth stood hard as iron, water like a stone.

G                    Bm                    G       A
Snow had fallen snow on snow, snow on snow.

D                    Bm   Em A       D
In the bleak midwinter, long long ago.

Heaven cannot hold him, nor earth sustain.
Heaven and earth shall flee away. When he comes to reign.
In the bleak midwinter, a stable place sufficed.
Lord God Almighty – Jesus Christ.

Angels and archangels may have gathered here.
Cherubim and seraphim thronged the air.
But only his mother in her maiden bliss.
Worshipped the beloved, with a kiss.

What can I give him, poor as I am?
If I were a shepherd I would bring a lamb.
If I were a wise man, I would do my part.
Yet what I can I give him – give my heart.

Caroling

Christmas carols grew out of the first Christmas hymns, which developed in 4th century Rome. While these Latin hymns were sung in church for generations, the first true carols developed in France, Germany, and Italy in the 13th century. These carols, written in the vernacular language of the area they were composed, were enthusiastically sung at community events and festivals. They were not composed specifically as Christmas carols, but rather as conglomerate holiday songs that were sung at many separate festivals and celebrations.

Later on, the songs would become associated primarily with Christmas and sung in numerous churches. Carols in Protestant churches were much more numerous, since the Protestant movement encouraged the arts, especially music. The modern practice of going door-to-door caroling likely has something to do with the root word for carol, “carole” or “carula” which both mean a circular dance. The practice may have developed out of the public ceremonies that created the first carols.
