About our artists:

Houston based singer-songwriters/instrumentalists Tom Tranchilla & Buddy Allen perform a variety of country, folk, Americana, ragtime, blues originals and covers. Tom specializes in finger-style 6 & 12-string acoustic guitars and vocals and "string-wizard" Buddy Allen specializes in guitar, mandolin, fiddle, banjo (just about everything with strings), as well as vocals. In their 17-year music partnership, Tom and Buddy have released 2 guitar duet CDs/albums: Acoustic Spontaneity and Acoustic Audio-Dacity, receiving rave reviews from My Texas Music, Stave Magazine and Houston Folklore and Music Society. Tom has released two solo LPs: Sketches of Life, which contains two internet radio chart toppers: Union Man, featured on numerous national labor talk shows, reaching #4 on the Texas Top 40 (texastop40.com) as well as Tom's arrangement/cover of Tom Ball and Kenny Sultan's, The Perfect Woman, which reached #2 on the Texas Top 40 charts. In addition, Tom's debut LP, That Train, was reviewed and featured in Music News. Tom also hosts KPFT's, 90.1 weekly radio interview show, Songwriters Studio.

Paul Cooper will open the concert with a few of his original folk singer-songwriter compositions, as well as a cover or two. Paul is well known to Second Saturday Concerts, having produced the series for ten years, and performed here with Across the Water and Houston Balalaika Orchestra.

Second Saturday Concert is presented by the Houston Folklore and Music Society, a non-profit organization dedicated to the preservation of folklore and folk/acoustic music. Light snacks available for purchase. Tickets sold at door (cash or check only) - adults $18, seniors (65) and students $14, children under 12 free. All profits go to the artists. SEPTEMBER FEATURED SONG by Paul Cooper

MY WIFE TOOK DOWN AND DIED

Woody Guthrie wrote this song in 1940 and it was published that year in his album of Dust Bowl Ballads. Woody performs it in his inimitable boom-chuk upbeat style, which you can listen to here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=GTnVMulDTYA>. I have also heard this song performed as a slow, mournful lament, like this version by Billy Bragg: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=v7K_as6T20s.

I like both versions so much that I chose to put them both out here. I have transcribed the chords to Woody's version. If anyone wants the more elaborate chords for the Billy Bragg version, email me (posted on the last page of this issue), and I will work them out and send them to you. You can get most of them just by watching Billy's left hand in the video. Both versions are also available on the HFMS Audio Archive page at <http://www.houstonfolkmusic.org/HFS Audio Archive.html>.

I Ain't Got No Home In This World Anymore

by Woody Guthrie

D G D
I ain't got no home, I'm just a-roamin' 'round,
D A
Just a wandrin' worker, I go from town to town.
D G D
And the police make it hard wherever I may go
D D A D
And I ain't got no home in this world anymore

My brothers and my sisters are stranded on this road,
A hot and dusty road that a million feet have trod;
Rich man took my home and drove me from my door
And I ain't got no home in this world anymore.

Was a-farmin' on the shares, and always I was poor;
My crops I lay into the banker's store.
My wife took down and died upon the cabin floor,
And I ain't got no home in this world anymore.

I mined in your mines and I gathered in your corn
I been working, mister, since the day I was born
Now I worry all the time like I never did before
'Cause I ain't got no home in this world anymore

Now as I look around, it's mighty plain to see
This world is such a great and a funny place to be;
Oh, the gamblin' man is rich an' the workin' man is poor,
And I ain't got no home in this world anymore.

A Zen Moment

by Andy Longo

A friend on Facebook often posts “Moments of Zen” on her page. Recently she was asked what exactly is Zen and gave a thoughtful response. For me, it caused me to recall lines from some of my favorite songs. While there are Zen masters such as Lao Tzu, Thich Nhat Hanh, Alan Watts, and Eckhart Tolle, there is also Jimmy Buffett. Thich Nhat Hanh advised us to “Smile, breathe, and go slowly”.

Jimmy Buffett expresses the thought thusly:

*I bought a cheap watch from a crazy man, floating down canal
It doesn't use numbers or moving hands, It always just says now
Now you may be thinking that I was had, but this watch is never wrong
And if I have trouble, the warranty said, breathe in, breathe out, move on.*

For a performance of the complete song see: Jimmy Buffett with Caroline Jones.

FROM THE EDITOR

The summer heat is upon us, even though this month the calendar says we move into “fall”! In August we lost a couple of wonderful female folk artists. It’s difficult to lose our icons and inspirations. Roberta Morales was that inspiration to her sister and fellow musician Lisa. She will be remembered as “a beautiful heart, an incredible singer, songwriter, [and] musician.”

“Nancy Griffith’s music transcended genre, generations,...”and she was “more loved than she knew”. Both ladies will be missed by their families, friends and their countless fans.

The pandemic surges like a storm around us so keep doing what brings you joy! Listen to or make your own folk music! And we can still safely gather!! Get those boosters, wear masks, and social distance. Remember it’s not just for you, but to protect your loved ones – right now, especially the children who we don’t have vaccines for yet!

If you know of anyone in need don’t hesitate to use the email below to reach out. If we can’t help, we will find someone who can!

If you know of any local or virtual events coming up that you’d like to share, or if you have an article you think may be of interest to the folk music community, please email Cehlina: Celtic.Music@aol.com and be sure to include LOCAL EVENTS (or CPR Article) in the subject line; we’ll do our best to include it in the next issue.
