SECOND SATURDAY CONCERT

January 8, 2022

7:30pm

Albert and Gage

Please wear a face mask. Vaccination is highly recommended for our audience members.

Austin, Texas duo Albert and Gage (Christine Albert and Chris Gage) have a personal and musical chemistry that radiates from the stage. The joy they experience making music together is evident as they travel through their musical roots, moving from country and folk to blues and French chansons. The integrity of their musicianship and the rare blend of their voices create a unique and cohesive sound as Gage effortlessly switches from guitar to piano and accordion throughout their set to follow the mood of the music. Austin songwriter Jimmy LaFave once described Christine as a “wondrous singer with a beautiful focus and unrestrained grace.” She had a prolific recording career as a solo artist before meeting Gage, including the acclaimed “Texafrance” series, a bilingual tribute to her European family roots.

Chris Gage, the Academy of Texas Music's "Musician of the Year 2011" is no stranger to a tour bus, spending many years on the road with Red Willow Band, Roy Clark and Jimmie Dale Gilmore and until recently played lead guitar on tour with Jerry Jeff Walker in addition to his Albert and Gage shows. He's a veteran of TV shows including Conan O'Brien, The Tonight Show and Hee Haw.

Second Saturday Concert is presented by the Houston Folklore and Music Society, a non-profit organization dedicated to the preservation of folklore and acoustic music. Light snacks and refreshments are available for purchase. Tickets sold at the door (cash or check only) - adults $18, seniors (65) and students $14, children under 12 free. All profits go to the artists. Concerts are held the second Saturdays of each month (summers and December off) in the West University Community Building at 6104 Auden (intersection of Auden. and Rice Blvd.) Contact Carolyn Davis (281-240-9797) for more concert information or visit our website at: www.houstonfolkmusic.org.

DECEMBER FEATURED SONG by Paul Cooper

WHILE GRANDPA SPUN THE YARN

Jimmie Joe and Chrissy Natoli – The Better Halves – gave us a wonderful show at the November Second Saturday Concert. In this one, from their 2014 CD, All Over the Map Jimmie Joe dazzled us with both his Chet Atkins-style picking and his songwriting.

You can hear it performed on their website at:

<http://www.thebetterhalvesmusic.com/MP3s/OldenDays.mp3>, or on the HFMS Audio Archive page at:

http://www.houstonfolkmusic.org/HFS_Audio_Archive.html.

Jimmie Joe plays it Capo III in C chord shape. You can adjust the capo up or down to suit your voice range.

OLDEN DAYS

by Jimmie Joe Natoli

C G
Grandpa used to tell me about the olden days –
Am F
How he used to walk to school uphill both ways.
C G
He set me down right there upon his knee
Am Dm G C
And I'd hang on to every word that Grandpa would say to me.

He'd reminisce out loud about when bread was just a dime.
I sat there wide open-eyed and travelling through time.
A day when gas was cheaper then, the price has surged by far.
But that was back before the wheel, let alone the car.

Am E
He told us fishing stories about when he used to sail
F C G
And how the fish got bigger every time he'd tell the tale.
C G
Grandma told us how he couldn't hit the broad side of a barn.
Am Dm G C
Now, she would knit the sweaters while Grandpa spun the yarn.

Grandpa was a hunter – quite a marksman, in fact.
He said he once took down a buck with his gun behind his back.
He told me once out on the field he had a golden arm.
But he turned down the big leagues cause he wouldn't leave the farm

Grandpa never claimed to be a ladies' man, he'd say.
But he broke a heart or two or three or four back in his day.
Grandma didn't mind Grandpa telling his white lies.
The places where it mattered, you could see it in his eyes.

Am E
In the days that followed after Grandpa died,
F C G
We ate too much and laughed a little more than we cried.
C G
Grandma told us how he couldn't hit the broad side of a barn.
Am Dm G C
How she would knit those sweaters while Grandpa spun the yarn.

Grandpa told me life was hard when he was a young lad.
Sometimes he thought the good would never catch up to the bad.
He was hard and loving, he gave thanks and he gave praise.
And he lived a life without regret back in the olden days.

In the days that followed after Grandpa died,
We ate too much and laughed a little more than we cried.
Grandma told us how he couldn't hit the broad side of a barn.
How she would knit those sweaters while Grandpa spun the yarn.
