FROM THE EDITOR

So February huh? Was January good to you? Most folks I know would already like a do over! We are moving into the month of LOVE  Maybe somehow we can make it better. Maybe somehow we can let those around us know that they matter. That they aren't forgotten in the middle of this crazy frenzy we call a pandemic. How will you show those around you that you care?

If you know of anyone in need don't hesitate to use the email below to reach out. If we can't help, we will find someone who can!

If you know of any local or virtual events coming up that you'd like to share, or if you have an article you think may be of interest to the folk music community, please email Cehlina: Celtic.Music@aol.com and be sure to include LOCAL EVENTS (or CPR Article) in the subject line; we'll do our best to include it in the next issue.

FEBRUARY FEATURED SONG by Paul Cooper
ROVER, ROVER SEE 'EM SEE 'EM

Old-time banjo fans, this is your moment! This is one of Uncle Dave Macon's classic banjo tunes – and a lively, fun one it is. I found a charming performance on YouTube by young Nora Brown <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=-xY-pTJR7Ts>, and she gives a great demonstration of frailing the way Uncle Dave played it. I couldn't understand all her words, so the lyrics below are the way I learned it. But the tune is the same. You can also hear it on the HFMS Audio Archive page at http://www.houstonfolkmusic.org/HFS_Audio_Archive.html.

CUMBERLAND MOUNTAIN DEER CHASE

C F C
 Away, away we're bound for the mountain
G C
 Bound for the mountain, bound for the mountain.
C F C
 Over the mountain, the hills and the fountain
G C
 Away to the chase, away.

CHORUS:

G C G C
 Rover, rover see 'em see 'em. Rover, rover catch 'em catch 'em
C F C
 Over the mountain, the hills and the fountain
G C
 Away to the chase, away.

We're set for the chase, we're ready for danger,
 High o'er the mountain, overtake the ranger
 Over the mountain, the hills and the fountain
 Away to the chase, away CHORUS

(slow) See the wild deer trembling, panting
 Trembling, panting. Trembling, panting.
(fast) In a moment they're no longer standing
 Away to the chase, away. CHORUS
