
THE COTTON PATCH RAG

The Newsletter of the Houston Folklore and Music Society

Volume 51, Number 8
AUGUST 2016

Note from the Editor: This is my last issue as editor of the Cotton Patch Rag. I've been editor for 29 years, but I will be moving to Portland, Oregon in the middle of August. Carolyn Davis and Andy Longo will be taking over as co-editors. They will probably continue to print a few paper copies of the newsletter for two more months before continuing with an all-digital format.

There will be no Second Saturday Concert until September, but in September the volunteers who work the concert could USE SOME HELP! I won't be there to work at the food table, and neither Andy Longo nor Gayle Fallon will have returned from their summer travels. In addition, rumor has it that volunteers and board members Deb and Steve Baltzell are also moving out of Houston. Please consider volunteering so that the Folklore/Music Society can continue to produce these concerts. You can contact any of the Folklore officers listed on the back page of this newsletter if you would like more information – or you can just show up at 6 PM on the night of the concert and get to work. If you would rather not work, how about bringing a batch of cookies for sale at the food table?

Christine Hartman

Upcoming Second Saturday Concerts:

Sept 10: Still on the Hill
Oct 8: Bob Livingston

Nov 12: Bettman and Halpin

AUGUST PICKIN' PARTY

There will be a pickin' party on Sunday, August 28 (fourth Sunday) at Anderson Fair 2-6 PM hosted by Bob Felder and some of the other volunteers at Anderson Fair. The host will provide a main dish, ice, soft drinks, plates & utensils, etc., and Anderson Fair will sell beer and wine to those who wish it. Don't forget your instruments! Guests are welcome. This is your chance to say: "I played at Anderson Fair"!

Directions: Anderson Fair is located at 2007 Grant at Welch, just off Montrose near Westheimer, behind Texas Art Supply. There is a map on their website: www.andersonfair.com.

HFMS BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETING

There will be a board of directors meeting on Thursday, August 11 at 7:30 PM. The location is still undecided. Phone Paul at 713-204-1207 (cell) or Christine (landline) at 281-495-2923 for more information. The board members are Paul Cooper, Carl Brainerd, and Carolyn Davis, Christine Hartman, Andy Longo, Gayle Fallon, Rick Wilson, Steve Baltzell, and Debra Baltzell.

LAST MONTH'S HAPPENINGS

John and Lynn Latch hosted a pickin' party on Sunday, July 24. John had invited friends from the Cowboy Church he attends, so we had some new faces and some fine musicians in the circle. There was lots of good food (I hope eating fresh fruit counteracts all the desserts that I ate). The neighborhood center was a very nice facility for a party. The outside temperature was in the high 90s that day, and most home air conditioners can't handle a group of 20 or 30 people, but this building did. Thank you John and Lynn!

HOT RIZE + RED KNUCKLES AND THE TRAILBLAZERS

Hot Rize and Red Knuckles will perform a free concert at Miller Theatre in Hermann Park on August 20 at 8:15 PM.

Hot Rize

Colorado band Hot Rize has not only climbed to the top of the world as the International Bluegrass Music Association's very first Entertainers of the Year, but their stature has been recognized with a nomination for a bluegrass Grammy, a four-star album review in Rolling Stone, and tours across four continents. Tim O'Brien, Pete Wernick, Nick Forster, and Bryan Sutton make up Hot Rize. (Former member Charles Sawtelle passed away in 1999.)

The reasons for the acclaim remain obvious. Steeped in bluegrass tradition through long hours on the road spent listening to the genre's giants — their very name is a knowing nod to Flatt & Scruggs' long-time flour mill sponsor. Hot Rize's music is equally informed by a taste for the music of Leadbelly and Freddie King, swing, old-time Appalachia and more in ways that mirror the broad sweep of Bill

Monroe's influences. And while their respect for tradition is easy to hear (and, thanks to their suits and vintage neckties, easy to see), the fresh elements they bring were enough to earn them the devotion of audiences.

Hot Rize tours nationwide to please not only longtime fans of the band, but also countless new fans who've discovered bluegrass and Americana music in more recent times. Says the group's guitarist, Bryan Sutton, "Nobody's been a bigger Hot Rize fan than me, and that's a perspective I've tried to maintain as a member of the band. I'm excited about this new record, and I can't wait to introduce new fans to the Hot Rize experience."

Red Knuckles and the Trailblazers

Red Knuckles and the Trailblazers is a band that travels in the back of the Hot Rize bus and occasionally spells their employers on stage. The foursome (Red Knuckles, Wendell Mercantile, Waldo Otto, and Swade) plays 40's and 50's country music as well as you might expect from people who have mostly listened to the same jukebox for most of their lives. That jukebox, at the Eat Cafe in Wyoming, Montana, is where Red and the boys first met Hot Rize and agreed to leave their home to pursue fortune and fame.

The "fortune" part notwithstanding, the 'Blazers did become famous for their original brand of entertainment, featuring band choreography and Wendell's "take-off" guitar with fringe to match his outfit. There are people who say that Red Knuckles and Hot Rize are the same. No one knows where any of those people are now....

This is a ticketed event for the covered seating area. Free tickets are available (4 per person over age 16 while they last) at the Miller Outdoor Theatre box office the day of the performance between the hours of 10:30am-1pm. If tickets remain at 1pm, the box office will re-open one hour before show time to distribute the remaining tickets. As always, open seating on the hill.

REPRINT FROM COTTON PATCH RAG MARCH 1979

Will The Circle Be Unbroken

By Camilla Horne

The last surviving member of the Original Carter Family, Sara Dougherty Carter Bayes, passed away on January 8, 1979 at the age of 81. Her cousin, Maybelle Addington Carter, died less than three months earlier on October 23, 1978, age 69. A.P. (Alvin Pleasant "Doc") Carter, Sara's first husband, was also 69 years old when he died, on November 7, 1960.

The distinctive Carter Family sound, the basis of which was (1) A.P.'s collecting and arranging, (2) Maybelle's guitar, and (3) Sara's lead singing was influenced in part by a Negro named Lester Riddle, several of whose songs they recorded. Maybelle's guitar style copied the Negro one, and their voices were based on this. While A.P. did sing lead on occasion, normally Sara sang lead or solo while playing second guitar or autoharp behind Maybelle's lead guitar. A.P. did not play any instrument in their commercial recordings (although he did play some guitar on Texas radio and played the fiddle as well) but sang bass.

The trio began playing together in 1926 when Maybelle married A.P.'s brother Ezra and moved to Maces Spring, VA, where Sara and A.P. lived. In answer to a newspaper ad, they auditioned for Ralph Peer of the Victor Talking Machine Company (RCA) in Bristol, TN about 25 miles from their home. Their first recording was "Bury Me Under the Weeping Willow" and this plus the other five songs they cut on August 1, 1927 ("Little Log Cabin By the Sea," "The Poor Orphan Child," "The Storms Are On the Ocean", "Single Girl, Married Girl", and "Wandering Boy") were chosen for commercial release. They were the only group to have so many songs accepted from this historic session which also saw the first recording of Jimmie Rodgers. They continued playing together after Sara's divorce from A.P. and recorded more than 250 songs until their final recording session on October 14, 1941. In their first recordings, Sara and Maybelle played guitar and sang behind A.P.'s bass singing.

For many years, The Carter Family theme song was "Keep On the Sunny Side." A.P.'s own compositions, such as "Jimmy Brown, the Newsboy" and "I'm Thinking Tonight of My Blue Eyes," along with their arrangements of traditional songs, became the standard versions among country singers.

Ralph Peer not only recorded them for RCA but secured the publishing rights for his Southern Music Publishing Company. He suggested that all their songs be copyrighted in A.P.'s name even though A.P. was not, and made no claim to be, the composer of most of the ones they recorded. [Peer did the same with Jimmie Rogers.] Peer's interest, of course, was in the financial gain to his own company but it set a precedent for copyrighting traditional music, or other people's songs which became highly controversial during the folk boom of the sixties.

A FOND FAREWELL AND HUGE "THANK YOU" TO A CORNERSTONE OF THE HOUSTON FOLKLORE AND MUSIC SOCIETY.

(by Carolyn Davis)

This month, August 2016, we bid farewell to one of the longest serving and hardest working members of the Houston Folklore and Music Society (HFMS). If you are an attendee of our Second Saturday Concerts, you will recognize her as one of the people who works the food concessions table, and you might know her for the delicious brownies and other fresh baked goods she makes each month. That task is just the tip of the iceberg of her volunteer service.

Christine Hartman has been a member of HFMS since about 1981. She has been editor of the Cotton Patch Rag since 1987. She assisted Gay Pangle with Second Saturday food concessions from 1990 until about 2009, at which point she took over the task of manager. Christine served as treasurer of the organization in 1995 and 1996 and, again, for the past twelve years. She created, and has since managed the data bases for membership, Second Saturday information and more. All the announcements about HFMS events, like Second Saturday and Pickin' Parties, have been sent by Christine. She has managed the arrangements for our first Monday meetings/song circles, and she has organized volunteer hosts for Pickin' Parties. She also hosted the HFMS Board of Directors meetings at her home for many years, and still brings her home-made rhubarb cake to the board meetings. Christine has provided all these, and many more volunteer services, with a smile and an efficiency that makes these important, sometimes challenging, and always labor intensive tasks look easy. When she announced in the HFMS Board of Directors meeting that she was moving out of state, the comment made was "It will take at least five volunteers to complete all the tasks that Christine has been doing for the organization." As the duties are now being assigned to other volunteers, it appears that was a gross underestimate. Her contributions have been priceless.

We wish Christine well on her new adventures. She has recently retired from her career as statistician and is moving, along with her lovely dogs, to Oregon this month. She will be sorely missed, not only for all the volunteer service she has provided, but for her kindness, her loyalty and her songs.

Thank you, Christine, for doing all you have done and for being who you are. You will be greatly missed.

As she onward sped, sure I scratched my head,
And I looked with a feelin' rare,
And I says, says I, to a passer-by,
"Who's the maid with the nut brown hair?"
He smiled at me and he says, says he,
"That's the gem of Ireland's crown.
Young Rosie McCann from the banks of the Bann,
She's the star of the County Down."

Chorus

At the Harvest Fair she'll be surely there
And I'll dress in my Sunday clothes,
With my shoes shone bright and my hat cocked right
For a smile from my nut brown rose.
No pipe I'll smoke, no horse I'll yoke
Till my plough turns rust coloured brown.
Till a smiling bride by my own fireside
Sits the star of the County Down

Chorus

The 32 traditional counties of Ireland
